Rarely has our city witnessed such excite ment as prevailed yesterday when the news was received that Cincinnati was in imminent danger from the advance of the rebel army, and the proclamation of the Governor was made known, calling upon citizens of the State to proceed immediately to its defense. A recruiting office was opened at once in the Atheneum, and volunteers came in rapidly, without regard to occupation or profession, walks of life, and but one patriotic spirit seemed to pervade every heart. A band of martial music in an omnibus rode up and down the street playing the most stirring Conneurs, September 10, 1862. | airs, men hurried to and fro with rifles on To W. J. EXTRAORDINARY DELAY OF EORAGE AND RATIONS.

ENERAL POPE'S OFFICIAL REPOR

OF THE RECENT BATTLES.

New Year, September 18
The Times publishes teneral Pope's report the recent battles in Virginia. He severely of sures the conduct of Fitz John Porter, speaks in the highest terms of Generals Medical Reariey. He attributes the disaster of Sal day, jointly to the leaf conduct of Porter and failure of McCiellan to send him supplies, these points he says: I do not hesitate to that if the corps of Porter had attacked enemy on the faint, on the afternoon of yed day, as he had my written order to do, we should not be supplied to the corps of the conduct of the corps of the conduct of the corps of the conduct of the corps of the corps of the conduct of the corps of the written the day before at Alexandra, static me that he had been directed by General Cellan to inform me that rations and forage my command would be leaded into the care available wagons as soon as I would send at alry escort to Alexandria to bring them up, hope of being able to maintain my positions whether victorious or not, vanished with this ter. My Cavalry was utterly broken don't long service in the face of the stemy, and he shoy were they could not be spared from front. Even if thore had been time to go in mines to Alexandria, and smail the loading service in the face of the stemy, and he shoy were they could not be spared from front. Even if thore had been time to go in mines to Alexandria, and smail the loadin trains, at the time this letter was written Alexandria, and smail the loadin dria was swarming with traops, and my wis sure, sout apped between that place and the my. I at once indirected that we must if police had not a sure of the movements of the same virginia from the time he left Washington in the returned. He army of the Potomax would in the returned the army of the Potomax would in failure of the army of the Potomax would in failure to the west on the Rappalananock. Freezing the section between him and Washington its failure to do so caused him to be complet flanked. Turning upon the encomy from Rappalananock, he could have bad him en pietsly defeated had not Fitz John Porter drifts of the screen of the movements, while the enomy marching reinforcements past him. He seem of this committee on the connect, and while the battle was ring within view of him, occupying his time.
